/ Certifications and audit results.

In short, everything you need to understand the impact of your chosen B&C T-shirts.

You're choosing accountability, transparency and a partner who shares your values.

Corporation

Sustainability isn't just a commitment for us. It's the way we do business.

Every sweatshirt in our line-up is made with care, for people, planet and the future.
From the cotton we source to the factories we partner with, sustainability is embedded into every step: more sustainable cotton and certified recycled polyester, Oeko-Tex certified fabrics and manufacturing in audited, responsibly managed factories.

Proud to be B Corp

B&C is B Corp certified – part of a global community of businesses that meet the highest standards of social and environmental impact.
Our certification is built on 5 key impact areas:

/ Workers – promoting fair, safe, and respectful conditions across our supply chain.

/ Environment – reducing our footprint through better materials, improved processes and long-term goals.

/ Community – supporting inclusive and positive impact beyond our business.

/ Customers – creating responsible products that deliver value without compromise.

/ Governance – embedding ethics, transparency and sustainability into our decision-making.

Being a B Corp means we're actively working towards a better future.

Certified B Corporation

Traceability by B&C, powered by Fairly Made®

We believe you should know the story behind your sweatshirt (or any B&C style!). That's why every B&C sweatshirt label features a QR code – scan it, and access verified product specific data via Fairly Made. You'll see:

/ The supply chain, from spinning to final manfacturing.

/ Environmental impact metrics, including water use, CO^2 emissions and energy consumption.

/ Country of origin for each production stage.

/ Certifications and audit results.

In short, everything you need to understand the impact of your chosen B&C sweatshirt.

Doing better. Together.

When you choose B&C, you're not just choosing high-quality sweatshirts.
You're choosing accountability, transparency and partner who shares your values.

B&C, sustainability every day.
